ABOUT THE ARTISTS

In nearly eight years Acacia Quartet has won great respect for their versatile and inventive programs which couple established repertoire with the unorthodox. Acacia has recorded six albums - three of which earned nominations for an ARIA Award for 'Best Classical Album' and an APRA-AMCOS Art Music 'Award for Excellence'. Acacia is passionate about supporting Australian composers, working with young musicians and sharing their love of music with audiences of all ages. Their performances feature regularly on ABC Classic FM and Fine Music 102.5. Acacia's engagements have included Melbourne Recital Centre, Sydney Opera House, City Recital Hall, The Concourse, the National Galleries of VIC and N.S.W. and their international debut in Vancouver, Canada, at the Roundhouse. In May 2017 Acacia Quartet was invited by the Christine Raphael Foundation to give their European debut, where they performed concerts in Berlin and recorded a CD featuring three string quartets by Günter Raphael.
