ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Solange Glasser is a faculty member of the Melbourne Conservatorium of Music, and is the convenor of a new online breadth subject entitled Creativity, Genius, Expertise and Talent. Her research interests include multisensory perception and exceptional abilities, with an emphasis on the impact of neurological conditions such as synaesthesia and absolute pitch on musical development.

Dr Amanda Krause is a post-doctoral research fellow at The University of Melbourne. She is interested in the social and applied psychology of music, and her research examines everyday music interactions, with an emphasis on considering listening technologies and the intersection of everyday music and well-being.

Engaged through the University of Melbourne-Melbourne Recital Centre Learning Partnership.

Melbourne Recital Centre acknowledges the people of the Kulin Nation on whose land this concert is being presented.
